FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

PRANGER RECEIVES SCHOLARSHIP AND AWARD

CHARLESTON, IL--Jeanne Pranger, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Pranger, live in New Lenox, has received the Elsie and Erson Giffin Scholarship and the Outstanding Senior in Dietetics Award at Eastern Illinois University.

The Elsie and Erson Giffin Scholarships are made annually to junior and senior Home Economics women students who have shown service to the community, leadership in pre-professional activities as well as academic excellence. During the depression days, Dorothy Giffin of Casey was not financially able to pursue a college education. It was her wish to be able to assist women students in achieving their goals; and so, before her death in 1977, she, along with her brother Jim Giffin, established a scholarship named in honor of their parents, Elsie and Erson Giffin.
